“Lord, Whose Love Through Humble Service”

Lord, whose love through humble service bore the weight of human need, who upon the cross, forsaken, offered mercy’s perfect deed:

we, your servants, bring the worship not of voice alone, but heart, consecrating to your purpose every gift that you impart.

Still your children wander homeless; still the hungry cry for bread;
Still the captives long for freedom; still in grief we mourn our dead.
As, O Lord, your deep compassion healed the sick and freed the soul, use the love your Spirit kindles still to save and make us whole.

As we worship, grant us vision, till your love’s revealing light in its height and depth and greatness dawns upon our quickened sight, making known the needs and burdens your compassion bids us bear, stirring us to tireless striving your abundant life to share.

Called by worship to your service, forth in your dear name we go to the child, the youth, the aged, love in living deeds to show;
hope and health, good will and comfort, counsel, aid, and peace we give,
that your servants, Lord, in freedom may your mercy know, and live.

“Take My Life, and Let it Be”

Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee.
Take my moments and my days; let them flow in ceaseless praise.
Take my hands, and let them move at the impulse of thy love.
Take my feet, and let them be swift and beautiful for thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing always, only, for my King.
Take my lips, and let them be filled with messages from thee.
Take my silver and my gold; not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect, and use every power as thou shalt choose.

Take my will, and make it thine; it shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart, it is thine own; it shall be thy royal throne.
Take my love, my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure store.
Take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee.

“My Life Is in You, Lord”

My life is in you, Lord; my strength is in you Lord;
my hope is in you, Lord; in you, it’s in you.
My life is in you, Lord; my strength is in you, Lord;
my hope is in you, Lord; in you, it’s in you.
I will praise you with all of my life, I will praise you with all of my strength; with all of my life, with all of my strength. All of my hope is in you.
My life is in you, Lord; my strength is in you Lord;
my hope is in you, Lord; in you, it’s in you.
My life is in you, Lord; my strength is in you, Lord;
my hope is in you, Lord; in you, it’s in you, in you.

Prayer of Confession

You bestowed upon us many talents, and we confess we have often squandered them.

You gave us lands and seas, mountains and plains;
and we confess we have polluted and allowed for their demise.

You gave us diversity in ethnicity, culture, and race;
and we confess we have often used these to uphold and support division.

You gave us creatures and plants, flora and fauna beyond imagining; and we confess we have consumed and overtaken habitats, allowing whole species to disappear.

You gave us humanity in miraculous diversity.

We confess we have failed to invest in this beauty and celebrate it, and have allowed prejudice and judgment to create suffering for too many.

You entrusted us with so much, and yet we allowed our fears to overtake us and failed to bring new life in the abundance possible in your love.

Forgive us, Holy Wisdom, and teach us again how to trust in you, how to live in the hopeful knowledge that you will multiply our investments, and be with us all the ways.

As we turn to God in confession, God turns to us in investment. God offers us abundant life. Let us embrace it, celebrate it, multiply it, and rejoice. For God’s investment in us never ends.

We pray in Christ’s name. Amen.
